

UP-TO-DATE

How do we work for the Lord? Should we only pray for the leading of the Holy Spirit? Or, is there as well a lot of work to do? What is the quality of that work? Is that even a very important factor in the process of communicating the gospel? This book will be a help to find some basic answers on the questions how the process of the work should go. Communicating the Gospel is a process that should be up-to-date, this book will help you in the process to up date.

The author, Leen La Rivière, studied education, music and religion. He is as well very involved in marketing and promotion activities for gospel music. Since 1969 he is involved in organising evangelistic concerts, ministry activities, teachings. He is president of Continental Sound, an international music ministry. Leen La Rivière is European Director of Christian Artists Europe, editor of Gospel Music Magazine, member of the Evangelical Alliance and a requested speaker and teacher.

UP-TO-DATE

an analysis & help

can evangelism be successful?

by
L. La Rivière